33rd International STUTTGART GERMAN MASTERS Horse Show

Ticket sales have begun – FEI jumping for ponies premieres in Stuttgart

Stuttgart – The International STUTTGART GERMAN MASTERS Horse Show World has long been presenting world class equestrianism and attractive shows. Equestrian fans can once again look forward to whole host of national and international Olympic champions and medal winners at major championships at the 33rd edition from 15 to 19 November 2017. Ticket sales began at the start of May and the good news is that prices have remained unchanged.

The World Cup jumping, dressage and driving classes already on the programme will be joined by the FEI Ponies Jumping Trophy that will make its debut at the horse show in November. "It means we'll be presenting our audience with an international jumping competition for ponies," announced Andreas Kroll, CEO of the organising in.Stuttgart Veranstaltungsgesellschaft. "Other highlights are naturally the Indoor Derby and the Show Evening on the opening Wednesday."

Tickets for the 33rd International STUTTGART GERMAN MASTERS Horse Show are available at EASY TICKET SERVICE, telephone +49 711 / 2 55 55 55, all the regular ticket offices and online at www.easyticket.de. Tickets for individual sessions cost between eight and 53 euro, day tickets between 28 and 70 euro. Five-day tickets are available for 150, 180 and 212 euro. There are also attractive special offers for school children and groups as well as concessions for clubs. All prices include advance-sales fees plus five euro postage and packing. Tickets at the box office on the day cost 2.50 euro more than ones bought in advance.
